1. Describe your overall goals and approach to address identified community issues, needs, and interests through your station's vital local services, such as multiplatform long and short-form content, digital and in-person engagement, education services, community information, partnership support, and other activities, and audiences you reached or new audiences you engaged.

At KWSO we offer programming that is useful to the Warm Springs Community. We do that on-the-air and online with audio, video, print articles & graphics. We are walking the talk of working in a multi-platform environment. Programming is designed to provide useful information and be entertaining and is designed to maintain as many listeners as possible utilizing a "Hot Adult Contemporary" format for the majority of the time. Designated special program slots appeal to specific segments of the community. To increase our community's awareness of current events and issues, provide education and promote healthy lifestyle – we need to gain and hold listeners. We share information with live reads on our "Community Calendar." We share information in pre-recorded Public Service Announcements (PSAs). Each month there are 8 categories of PSAs that rotate through every day (about 3x a day). We also schedule 4 rotations of PSAs daily to be able to ramp up messaging as needed. There is a heavy rotation (18x/day), medium rotation (10x/day) and 2 light rotations (5x/day) every day. We stream our broadcast 24/7 so folks can listen live on their radio or at our website. And now we archive our morning radio programs 5am - 9am each day using the Radio Free America Service. The link to those programs are toward the bottom of our website home page. We create PSA campaigns with partners in the community that may include a pre-recorded message, maybe a news story or a weekly news magazine feature to elaborate on a subject. Our top local news stories are printed on our website weekdays and the news magazines turn into podcasts that are posted on our website using SoundCloud. We sometimes take the PSA campaigns a step further by creating graphics for printed flyers or online sharing. We schedule social media posts in support of the campaign content (Facebook & Twitter) and occasionally we create a video that is shared online with some having been shared on a DVD give away. KWSO coordinates with the Spilyay Tymoos Tribal newspaper and we share articles that often tie in with our radio work to disseminate information through print as well.

2. Describe key initiatives and the variety of partners with whom you collaborated, including other public media outlets, community nonprofits, government agencies, educational institutions, the business community, teachers and parents, etc. This will illustrate the many ways you're connected across the community and engaged with other important organizations in the area.

HEALTH In 2017 KWSO aired 3600 Public Service Announcements about health services/programs, opportunities & education related to: obesity, fitness, heart health & diabetes. The second year of involvement in the Warm Springs Child Health Task Force, an effort focused on reducing obesity in young children led to KWSO: news magazine programs, news stories, PSAs, live reminders on our community calendar, posts on our website and links to additional information - including videos we produced to promote the 5-2-1-0 guide for healthy kids. We created a graphic for t-shirts and 5-2-1-0 posters for classrooms at the Reservation school and exam rooms at our Indian Health Services Clinic. Additionally we have participated with the Task Force at community events to engage with children and families. Activities, in which a majority of Tribal Members participate, have included: Pi-Ume-Sha Health Fair; 4th of July Parade; Back to School BBQ; Halloween Trunk or Treat; Christmas Lights Parade; & our K-8 School Family Holiday Craft Night. KWSO creates media to share information and educate our community. Our utilization of the Warm Springs Joint Health Commission health strategies allows us to focus on the same issues our health professionals are working on. In addition to the Child Health Task force, health partners include: Indian Health Service; Tribal Community Health; Tribal Wellness Program; & the Jefferson County Health Department. EDUCATION A partnership with our local school district has led to an increase in content around school activities, information for families, advice for supporting students We air "Eagle News" weekday mornings which is a one minute report of school activities, tips and information. Throughout each year, KWSO news magazines feature interviews with School administrators, teachers and school staff. School district information is shared on our daily community calendar and the district is an underwriter of our "On the Day in Local History" segment. Additionally - KWSO has participated in school engagement nights and events. Our photos of school district activities and athletics is the most popular draw to our Facebook Page. We focus on encouraging youth and celebrating achievements - with positive messaging around Education in general. Another Education partner is the Oregon Health Science University "On Track" program that is exposing our Native Youth to careers in science and medicine. We have actually developed tags to our weekly job report to feature information about those careers in an effort to plant seeds for youth to consider.

3. What impact did your key initiatives and partnerships have in your community? Describe any known measurable impact, such as increased awareness, learning or understanding about particular issues. Describe indicators of success, such as connecting people to needed resources or strengthening conversational ties across diverse neighborhoods. Did a partner see an increase in requests for related resources? Please include direct feedback from a partner(s) or from a person(s) served.

KWSO has aligned our approach to health programming with Warm Springs Joint Health Commission strategies to address our community's health needs. According to the 2016 Annual Health System Report for the Warm Springs Indian Reservation - "The Warm Springs Community faces significant health challenges." In collaboration with local health providers and educators - KWSO utilizes a range of media strategies to disseminate information in an effort to impact positive, healthy change. KWSO Public Service Announcements related to the Warm Springs Joint Health Commission health strategies are included in their annual report (example: the number of announcements increased from 12,850 in 2014 to 15,266 in 2015.) Tracking analytics from online efforts will begin more routinely in 2018. Ultimately, improved health statistics in the areas we focus on would show positive impact. There are multiple health challenges in our community. One issue is being overweight. The Warm Springs Tribal Behavior Risk Factor Surveillance Survey conducted in 2006 identified that of 374 adult respondents - the majority had a BMI (Body Mass Index) of either overweight (29.9%) or obese (45.7%) with 8.6% having a BMI of extreme obesity. Obesity contributes to the likelihood of heart disease and stroke, diabetes and asthma. According to the 2015 Annual Health System Report for the Warm Springs Indian Reservation Diabetes, Diabetes & Heart Disease were 2 of the top 5 causes of Death in Warm Springs in 2014. The report states "The majority of patients with diabetes died from related heart disease or kidney failure. This remains an area that needs emphasis for our local population and can be combated through healthier diets, increased physical activity and reducing the number of overweight and obese people in our community." By focusing in the areas of the most urgent Tribal health needs - our multimedia efforts are educating listeners and encouraging healthier behaviors. Efforts include: broadcast, online with our website, social media platforms, in partnership with our Tribal newspaper and in person. We utilize Tribal voices and images, local knowledge and expertise to create culturally relevant media that effectively communicates information and encouragement.

4. Please describe any efforts (e.g. programming, production, engagement activities) you have made to investigate and/or meet the needs of minority and other diverse audiences (including, but not limited to, new immigrants, people for whom English is a second language and illiterate adults) during Fiscal Year 2017, and any plans you have made to meet the needs of these audiences during Fiscal Year 2018. If you regularly broadcast in a language other than English, please note the language broadcast.

There are 3 distinct and unique Tribal Languages for the Confederated Tribes of Warm Springs (Ichishkin = Shapatin, Kiksht = Wasco, Numu = Paiute). KWSO continues to offer a short phrase hourly, rotating through the languages. On weekends we air a one hour Language, Culture & History Program utilizing archival language lessons - both long and short, within the hour, and for each of the three languages. We partner with our Tribes' Culture & Heritage Language Program to create the language lessons. This past year - one of the teachers created language lesson videos that we included in a DVD that we distributed to the community. Some of the videos were created by KWSO utilizing our lesson audio matched up with visual elements. One thousand DVDs were distributed at community events and all the videos on the DVD were posted on our KWSO YouTube Page. That allows access to the videos either on a DVD player in homes or online via internet connected electronic devices. There is a Warm Springs Joint Health Commission health strategy that recognizes the value of creating cultural opportunities and events for the community to take part in. KWSO routinely promotes these events and ties wellness to culture. We created a Public Service Campaign based on the "We R Native" messaging that is Warm Springs Specific. Additionally - we have increased the use of local voices in culturally relevant messages about: voting, parenting, & HIV/Aids.

5. Please assess the impact that your CPB funding had on your ability to serve your community. What were you able to do with your grant that you wouldn't be able to do if you didn't receive it?

KWSO is located in Rural Central Oregon on the Warm Springs Reservation. We offer access to news and information to anyone who can listen to the radio. For many of our families who live in poverty, they may not be able to afford alternative sources for news. Most other radio station signals are focused on music with little Warm Springs local content. The Oregon Public Broadcasting station signal varies depending on where you live. OPB does however offer TV digital channels to our population center and one of those is their main radio channel. There is no other free TV signals in our community. Without CPB funding - we would not be able to offer the same level of local programming nor could we continue to offer any National Programming. CPB-CSG funding allows us to air Native Voice One programming focused on a Native American Population. Their flagship program "Native America Calling" has been aired on KWSO since it began. We also carry most all of their additional program offerings and even contribute one weekly program that they distribute nationally. We also use CPB funds to carry NPR's All Things Considered weekday afternoons. Our staffing lacks the capacity to offer thorough, in-depth, national news reporting - so we instead, choose to cover Warm Springs News better than anyone else. We rely on "All Things Considered" to cover national stories for our listeners. Without CPB funding - we would continue to focus on our local community, but with less staff and reduced content produced. We could no longer offer national programming.
