

Subsistence Fisher Financial Assistance Application for

Members of the Confederated Tribes of the Warm Springs Reservation

The federal government has made limited financial assistance available to subsistence fishers that experienced negative impacts due to COVID-19 in 2020. The Tribe has adopted a plan for the use of this financial assistance that allows subsistence fishers to apply for funds if they were negatively affected. The Fish and Wildlife Committee will oversee the fisher assistance program. Funds are very limited. The Fish and Wildlife Committee will use the information you provide below to determine if you are eligible for funding and to make decisions about how much financial assistance each fisher may receive. Decisions of the Fish and Wildlife Committee are final. There will be no appeal process. Please provide answers to questions below for the consideration of the Fish and Wildlife Committee, and sign and date the application.

1. Full name and Warm Springs Tribe enrollment number.

2. Do you participate in subsistence fishing?

3. Do you subsistence fish from a scaffold?

4. If you fish from a scaffold, where is it located and who is the scaffold owner?

5. Do you subsistence fish and hook and line?

6. How many times (your best estimate) did you participate in subsistence fishing activities in 2017, 2018 and 2019? Please indicate for each year.

7. Please give your best estimate of how many salmon/steelhead you harvested for subsistence use in 2017, 2018, and 2019. Please indicate for each year.

8. Did COVID-19 negatively impact your ceremonial or subsistence fishing activities in 2020?

9. Are you a minor or barred from receiving federal funding for any reason? (Minors are not eligible for funding under this assistance program*).

Certification

I certify that the answers provided above are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand and agree that the Fish and Wildlife Committee decisions about my eligibility for funding and the amount of funding I may receive is final and not subject to appeal to the Committee or Tribal Council.
