

FESTIVAL OF THE LAND

AT THE COVE PALISADES

Saturday, June 3, 2023 • 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Festival of The Land is a diverse natural, cultural and historical celebration of the land.

Come celebrate the land, food and stories from where the Crooked River and the Deschutes River canyons meet. Many cultures have made this area home, and each brings a diversity of experiences to share. Help us celebrate the history and all the cultures that make this land so special.

FREE Admission and parking.

Additional shuttle available if parking is full.

Contact: Ranger Erin Bennett | 541-977-5759 | stateparks.oregon.gov

Things To Do:

- History, culture and wildlife displays
- Dutch oven cooking demonstrations
- Archeology hikes
- Kids' games!
- Petting "zoo"
- Mini farmers market, pollinator and fish displays, fry bread and more

Some presentations and displays offered in Spanish.

Scan QR Code
for Festival Info

THE FESTIVAL IS SUPPORTED BY:

